

10. Women Development

10.1 Mutually Aided Cooperative Societies

10.2 Introduction:-

In the spirit of co-operative SASSS mission is to provide timely financial services to its members particularly to the rural poor women, to prompt their economic and social betterment through thrift self health and mutual aid. There is a strong identification with this MATCS.

Our main focus is empowering rural women. Majority of the board members, staff were drawn from women groups. They still continue to see themselves as helping the poor in its development function. These board members are grass root leaders, very active, in their social mission and although most are present at meeting they are not able contribute to management over right are certain aspects of SASSS strategy. The majority of the operational decisions are left to the chief executive officer.

10.3 Motto & vision:-

Our mission is to improve overall quality of life, to rural & urban women by running a sustainable self sufficient and managed women cooperative union setting an example for collective action and rural women capacity.
